Death of Well Known Man

Oscar Newton Crane, who was well known throughout this section of the country, died at his home on Howell street, Canandaigua, on Tuesday afternoon, after a long illness of Bright's disease and heart trouble.

Mr. Crane was born in Canandaigua February 15, 1836. From 1856 until a few years ago he conducted an undertaking business in Canandaigua. For fifteen years he was chief of the fire department in his home village and he served eighteen years on the board of education there. He was largely instrumental in securing right of way through this section for the Rochester & Eastern Rapid Railway.

Sad hearts saw Mrs. Mary J. Crane, widow of Oscar N. Crane, laid to rest Monday afternoon following services at the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. Crane died at her home on Howell street

Thursday afternoon. She was dearly beloved for her kindness and her work with the Presbyterian church of which she never lost interest. Her husband, whom she married in 1860, was also well known, dying in Canandaigua on August 10, 1910, after an illustrious business career. Mrs. Crane leaves behind three fine children—Miss Ella of New York, Miss Caroline of Canandaigua, and Benham Crane, also of Canandaigua.
