

Manchester Summaries

Manchester/Clifton Springs:

Mary Coolidge (1846-1922), remained single

- Born in Phelps, later lived in Clifton Springs with brother Charles, a seed and grain dealer
- Was on Board of Ontario Orphan Asylum, associated with Clifton Springs Sanitarium
- Member of Phelps Political Equality Club, met at her home in 1904, focus on temperance at that meeting
- Phelps Political Equality Club met at her home – 1905, State President Mrs. Ella Hawley Crosset there
- Phelps Political Equality Club and Clifton Springs Club met together at her home – 1905
- 2nd Annual Convention of Ontario County Suffrage Organizations held in Clifton Springs in Universalist Church, Mary Coolidge – first president of CS Political Equality Club welcomed everyone – 1905
- Chosen as delegate to State Convention in Rochester – 1905
- President of Clifton Springs Civic Club – 1907
- Member of Clifton Springs Political Equality Club, met at her home – 1911

Dr. Anne Hintze (1865-1956), remained single

- Born in Massachusetts, graduate of Women's Medical College of Pennsylvania Class of 1903
- Was Superintendent of Nurses at Pennsylvania Hospital in 1890s
- Taught at Framingham Training School for Nurses, early 1900s
- Practiced medicine at Clifton Springs Sanitarium and Clinic for many years

Class of 1903

Manchester/Shortsville:

Florence Mills Sheffer (1870-1929), spouse Edward T. Sheffer, 1 child

- Husband was town clerk
- First president of Shortsville Equal suffrage Club – March 4, 1915
- Vice Leader at Ontario County Woman Suffrage Association, held in Shortsville, May 1916
- Vice Leader at Ontario County Woman Suffrage Association, held in Canandaigua, May 1917

Miss Harriet M. Pratt (1853-1938), remained single

- Born and lived entire life in Manchester
- Graduate of Brockport Normal School, entered teaching at 17
- Member of the Methodist Church, secretary of Foreign Missionary Society
- Devoted to civic affairs in village of Manchester

Rena/Lorena Weller Drummond (1859-1930), spouse George H. Drummond, 1 child

- Lived in Village of Shortsville, husband was a painter in a machine shop